

Appintus I bequeath my body to the earth, and my soule to a knight who was with hesperus in Ihesus Christ to have a joyfull Resurrection Amen Item I make my brother Anthony Wells, of the parische of Mapledurham, in the aforesaid countie of Northampton my full and whole executor And I bequeath unto the said Anthony all my right, and title of a lease, by wch lease I the said John Wells have the living of a vicarage in the parische of St. Elizabeths, Sadzrou my decease untill the full end and terme of the same lease be expired If Elizabeth Sadzrou shall see long live, which Elizabeth is one of the three wives, and the last wife mentioned in the said lease, without any lett or disturbance of any person or persons, whatsoever And I bequeath to the said Anthony all my goods, chattels, and whatsover I the said John Wells doe yet possess of to him his heirs, executors or assignes after my decease Item I give unto my brother Thomas Wells, one shilling Item I give unto my brother Henry Wells one shilling Item I give unto Elizabeth Sadzrou, the wife of William Sadzrou in the parische of Chirkmeon in the countie of Devon, one shilling Item I make Thomas Martin, & Francis Whitehill my two overseers of this my last will and testament In witness whereof I have hereunto sett my hand and seale this twentieth first daie of February Anno domini one thousand six hundred forty seven Susanna Kneale Welle witnesseth Thomas Martin Susanna Kneale Whitehill Tho. Whitehill scrip:

Probatum Aut Testamentum superscriptum apud London in honorabilibus dominis Cathanicis Brent mistic lesum doctorum curia preeratua in sua iusticia legitime constituta Quibus octavo die mensis Martij Anno domini millesimo sexcentesimo, quatuordecimo octavo Juramento Anthony Wells scilicet dicit de factis et executoris in huiusmodi testamento nominati Qui commissis fuit administratio omnium et singularium bonorum rerum et executorum dicit de factis De bene et fideliter administrando eadem et de summa et substantia viginti Commisit in ea parte auctoritate emanata Jurat per se

John Brinkenon Sacre theologie Professor

The last will and Testamente of John Brinkenon Doctor in Divinitie, and parson of Antwerpen in the countie of Brabant, written while hee was in perfecte memorie Appintus the said John doe bequeath my soule into the hands, of my most gracious, Saviour and redeemer, beset to come him of infinite mercie and goodness to be mercifull to me in the pardon and forgiveness of all my sinnes, and to receive my poore sinfull soule to his mercie, And for my body I desire that it may be buried in Antwerpen Wharveshall neere my wife if I die in Antwerpen or if I die not in Antwerpen then to be buried in the parische Church or Church yard where I die as it shall please that parische to give leave And for my worldlie estate I give to my eldest daughter Bridget, that two hundred poundes which is in the hands of Mr. Danell Hollme worth woollen draper in London now due unto me all the summe of the Wages, and phisicall in wall streete I doe also give my household stuffe and bookes, which I appointe to be sold and divided equally, betwixt my seven younger children or as many of them as shall be alive when I die I doe likewise give them my Inheritance, of Blunke, which I doe also appointe to be sold and divided equally, betwixt my seven younger children, in like manner All my other money what there are appaere, to be given me, to me I give to my three younger sonnes and my three younger daughters to be divided If my daughter Bridget die I give that two hundred poundes to my six younger children, which are Thomas, Benjamin, Richard, Elizabeth, Alice and Marie to be divided And for my eldest Sonne I am rare led of him, as hee hath bene of me yet hee shall have a childes portion, therefor I give him the hundred poundes which Martin and Joseph Alexander oweth me I doe also give him all Saint Austins workes, and all Gaudinud his workes, and all Thomas Aquinas his workes, more

I appointe to be taken out of my other bookes, and delivered to him, As the all my rattle sone and I will that I am possided of when I die, I give to my seven younger children to be equally divided, or to as many of them as shall be living when I die, The money wh is in my wages hande for the tythe wood of Wytham I give to my seven younger children to be divided. And of this my last will and testament I doe make my seven younger children which are Thomas Benjamin Richard Heugett, Elizabeth, Anne and Marie full and whole exectore. And my brother Doctor Adams, and my brother Thomas of Brentenden I doe make Executors. All this have I written beinge in perfect memory November eighteenth, One thousand six hundred forty five. At Brentenden, Sealed Anno Domini and delivered to the use of my children in the presence of Richard Munday William of Whady his marke,

Probatus Testamentum

Supra scriptum apud London coram mag^o Henrico Smith Clerico Curato venerabilis p^{ri} domin^o Catholico Brenten^o mag^o doctoris iuris advocat^o mag^o sue iusticie legitime constituti Decimo quarto die mensis Martij Anno domini milia computationem ecclesie Anglianae millesimo septentesimo quadragiesimo septimo Jurem^o Henric et Maria Brentenden duorum executorum in huiusmodi Testamento nominatorum quibus commissa fuit administratio omnium et singularium bonorum vicum et reddituum dot oute defuncti, et bene et fideliter administrandi eadem No^o sancta etc. Evangelia Jurat.
 Reservata potestate similis Commissionem facienda ratoris executoribus in eodem testam^o nominatis, cum venient ratorum petitur in orbita vero forma admittitur. Ex am.

In the name of God Amen

I Richard Humphrey of oule Winsor in the Countie of Berke Clarke beinge sicke, and weak in bodie, but of good and perfect memorye thanks be given to Almighty god, doe make publish, and ordyne, this my last will and Testam^o in manner and forme followinge. That is to say, I first I commend my soule into the hande of Almighty God my maker stedfastly believinge the free pardon and remission of all my sinne, by and through the mercede of Jesus Christ, And my body I commit unto the earth from whence itt came to be decently buried And do requere my all such worldly estates, that itt hath pleased god to bestowe upon mee I doe give will and bequeath as followeth, I Suprimis I give and bequeath to my Sonne John Humphrey one greate mainstall chest, in the parlor, A halfe headed bedsted in the middle chamber next the studdie, and an old fleather bed. Item I give unto my Sonne John a mainstall bedsted, and another byill, and a counte. Cullboard in the studdie chamber.
 Item I give unto my Sonne Richard Humphrey a bedsted that her lieth on, a little table in the same roome, and three booke, the one an hebrew interlineall Bible The second Arsius, and Tremilius Bible in Latine. The third Plutarcho byes in Englishe.
 Item I give unto my daughter Judith Keaper the greate brasle fall standinge in the chamber, called the studdie, Item I give unto my grandchild Dallis Humphrey one blacke bullorke. Item I give unto my Sonne Damell Humphrey fourtie pounde to be paid to him by my exectore if hee shall accomplishe the age of one is timentie yeared. And if itt shall happen that the sayd Damell shall departe this naturall life before hee accomplishe the time aforesaid. Then my will is, that twenty pounde of that fourtie pounde formerly given to the aforesaid Damell shall be distributed to my three Daughters John Richard, and to my daughter Judith or whiche of them longer shall survive the other. All the residue of my good, and chattells what so ever herein before not given and bequeathed I give and bequeath unto my lawfull wife

Richard Humphrey

appointe