

MEMBRANE 29.

1275.
 March 6. Windsor. Confirmation of a sale made by John de London, king's clerk, escheator this side Trent, to Geoffrey de Picheford, of the marriage of Richard Sifrewast, son and heir of Richard Sifrewast, deceased, and of the marriage of John his brother, in case of the death of the said Richard before marriage or attaining full age.
- Grant to Walter Cardun of the prebend which Henry de Wodestok held in the church of St. Patrick, Dublin, resigned, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the see.
Vacated because the writ was surrendered.
- March 7. Windsor. Presentation of Nicholas de Bassingburn to the church of Titecumbe in the diocese of Salisbury, in the king's gift by reason of his custody of the lands and heirs of Hubert de Husee, tenant in chief.
- The like of Ralph de Alegate to the church of Ostringhangere in the diocese of Canterbury, in the king's gift by reason of his custody of the lands and heirs of Nicholas de Crioll, tenant in chief.
- March 9. Windsor. Signification to R. bishop of Lincoln of the royal assent to the election of Ralph, canon of Raveneston, to be prior of that house.
- March 16. Cippenham. Writ de intendendo directed to the tenants.
 Mandate to John de London, escheator this side Trent, to restore to him the temporalities.
- March 18. Quarrington. Mandate to the treasurer of the New Temple, London, to deliver to Master Thomas Bek, king's clerk, keeper of the wardrobe, 80*l.* of the tallage of the king's Jews, as the king is informed by brother Joseph de Chauncy, the treasurer, that about 100*l.* thereof is deposited at the New Temple; and he is to certify the king of the residue.
- March 13. Windsor. Ratification of a gift, for life, made by the persons lately supplying the king's place in England, to William de Hakeburn of the prebend which Roger de Harewell, deceased, held in the castle of Nottingham.
- March 15. Windsor. Licence for Isaac son of Benedict Gabay, Jew of Lincoln, to sell to Master Thomas de Waynflet all the debts wherein Richard le Bret of Wrengel is bound by his charters to the said Isaac, according to the form of the provision made by Henry III. that no Jew may, without licence, sell any debt wherein a Christian is bound to him, and that the purchaser have no more therein than the king would have if the debt were in the king's hands, to wit, the chattel contained in the charter without usury.
- March 18. Quarrington. Signification to the archbishop of York of the royal assent to the election of William Hog, canon of Boulton-in-Kravene, to be prior.
- Safe-conduct, until Midsummer, for John Clepping, merchant of Lubek, coming to England.
- March 25. Aylesbury. Signification to D. archbishop of Cashel of the royal assent to the election of Peter OHullcan, monk of the Cistercian order, to be bishop of Ros.
- Mandate to Geoffrey de Gyenvill, the justiciary, to restore to him the temporalities, having first received his letters patent sealed with his own seal and that of the chapter, that this grace shall not be to the king's prejudice or drawn into a precedent.
- Ratification of a sale made by William Gauger, king's clerk, to the monastery of Glastonbury, of all the issue of stock of the said monastery for the present year for 100*l.* and of a certain ward for 20*l.*